

ACM Education Board
Membership Structure, Terms of Service, Rotation Process

March 31, 2016

The following, after discussion with the Education Board, recommend establishing a process for membership rotation for the Education Board.

Beginning in 2016-2017 term, the Education Board will be comprised of 10 members plus 3 ex-officio members (representing the ACM Public Policy Office, CSTA, as well as the ACM Education Manager).

Terms of Service and Rotation Process for Members:

1. Board terms of 2-years with up to two possible re-appointments.
2. 1/2 of the members will be eligible for rotation off or re-appointment each year.
3. The process will start with the Education Board of 2016-2017.
4. New members will be appointed by the ACM President with guidance from the Education Board [co-]chair[s].
5. All re-appointments of Education Board members are made by the ACM President.
6. The [co-]chair[s] of the Education Board are appointed [and re-appointed] by the ACM President.

Other Rotations:

1. With the appointment of [a] new Education Board [co-]chair[s], the current [co-]chair[s] will move to the Education Board as Past Education Board [co-]chair[s] and will serve until the new chair becomes the former chair.
